DEVELOPING E-LEARNING

ICT - E-learning and New Skills

PROGRAMME AIMS	This day is a must for teachers and trainers of all learning organisations. The day will be led and facilitated by experienced staff with a background in teacher support programmes. There will be a chance to look at good practice and for each delegate to share experiences and also to examine strategies for their own personal development using online resources. During the day, there will also be a chance to look at how cutting edge ICT can be used more effectively by individual teachers/trainers, both in the classroom and to cope with day to day planning and administration. A hands on day!
OF INTEREST TO	14-16 TRAINERS, TUTORS, LECTURERS AND SUPPORT STAFF, 16-19 TRAINERS, TUTORS, LECTURERS AND SUPPORT STAFF, TEACHERS/LECTURERS/TRAINERS NEW TO MENTORING, ICT TECHNICIANS, NEWLY QUALIFIED TEACHERS, TUTORS AND SUPPORT STAFF, HEAD OF ICT
OBJECTIVES	By the end of this day, participants will have had the opportunity to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - examine good practice and reflect on their own use of ICT in the classroom so far - examine how they can further use ICT to become more effective both in the classroom or workshop and during their working day - look at the latest range of hardware now used in classrooms and remotely.
DELIVERY METHOD	A one day course with presentations from experienced practitioners, examples of local good practice and practical advice. There will be a chance to see practical solutions for the use of ICT, using software and developing new skills.
