DEVELOPING E-LEARNING

An Introduction to Web 2.0: Networking

PROGRAMME AIMS	This fun session will raise awareness of how your young learners are using Web 2.0 and will acknowledge the skills they are displaying when doing so. The workshop will explore the pedagogical advantages to be found and utilised with social networking and Web 2.0 sites. If you believe that sites like MySpace and Youtube are the root of all evil, this workshop will allow you to discuss that view, but will also let you view some of the sites to be found on Web 2.0 and to experience their potential use and their output. Come along and see what they are doing on: - MySpace, Bebo, WAYN, Piczo - Youtube, Google Video, TeacherTube, VideoJug - Flickr, Photobox, Frapr - Blogger, Tumblr, Wikispaces, etc.
OF INTEREST TO	14-16 TRAINERS, TUTORS, LECTURERS AND SUPPORT STAFF, 16-19 TRAINERS, TUTORS, LECTURERS AND SUPPORT STAFF
OBJECTIVES	Aims to show what skills are being learned whilst using Web 2.0 sites and discuss the advantages and disadvantages of such use. Those attending this session will: - See Web 2.0 sites in action - Learn new techniques for sharing images and videos - Consider learning opportunities made available by Web 2.0 - Begin to develop a presence on one or more Web 2.0 sites - Discuss advantages and disadvantages of such sites.
DELIVERY METHOD	Delegates will see Web 2.0 sites and techniques demonstrated. They will then be given the chance to: - visit the sites seen in a supported hands-on session - explore Web 2.0 to understand the skills being learned - discuss with others the various worries about Web 2.0
